

Personal Protective Equipment Guide

Gloves 	Nitrile Gloves
Level 2 Gown 	Level 3 or 4 Gown
Safety Glasses 	Goggles
Face Shield 	Hair Bouffant
Mask Level 1-3 (Please be aware of level –All levels appear the same) 	N95 Respirator
Hospital Issued Scrubs 	Point-of-Care Risk Assessment This should be undertaken prior to any patient contact. It is based on a combination of the task, and the patient. Task – Do I need protection for what I am about to do because there is a risk of exposure? Patient – Do I need protection for what I am about to do because of the patient’s symptoms?